PROLOGUE

The curtains now are parting
On scenes from the Play of Life.
And the audience now is preparing
To review many scenes of strife.
Education is but one of many parts
Of life, but still it's a major role.
It gives us a chance to live as we should,
And helps us to better our soul.
"Life is but a walking shadow,
A poor player who frets his hour upon the stage."
Earning all of his future bread
With never a thought of wage.
Be thankful that you have teachers,
And text books to help you learn.
Now turn the pages to your heart's content.
"Sweetest Memories" will ever return.

Flashes

The Footlights on the stage have lighted up the scenery and action unusually well this year, giving us a bright outlook.

Coaches James Jiacoletti and William Engstrom had charge of the intensity of the glow which resulted in second place standing in the district.

Football season opened September 12 with a practice game at Rock Springs which Superior lost 32-0. September 19 Superior journeyed to Afton to take an easy 47-0 win. Kemmerer was entertained here September 26 on a mud coated field with the Dragons winning 18-0. Green River was taken into our fold with a 26-7 score. The game was played at the Rock Springs stadium. Rock Springs gave us our only conference setback with a 14-13 score on the 10th of October. Green River was again defeated on October 24th 51-7. The season was finished with a hard earned victory over Rawlins 6-0.

The team finished in second place in the district with Rock Springs first.

In the all-state selection of teams, Harold Buffo was chosen as first team alternate at the center position. Joe Jelaca was put on the third team as a back. Mike Legerski and Willie Acker were chosen as honor mention backfield men.

Other bright globes in the Footlights are: Frank Genetti, Ennsi Raunio, Guy Pasquini, Hale Law, Reuben Haueter, Bill Cottrell, Steve Stemas, Paul Petrina, Junior Brown, Graham Hood, Steve Stemas, Joe Guariz, and George Radakovich.

"Flies"

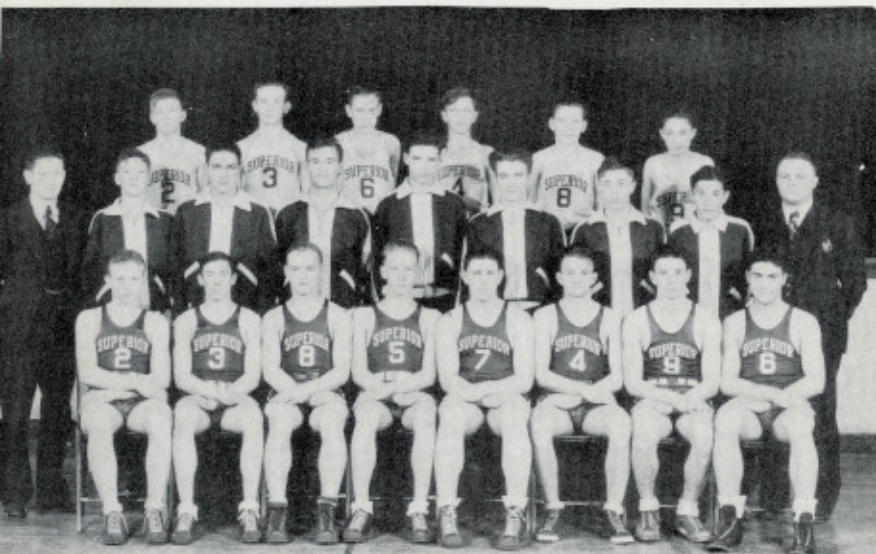

As we walk on the "cat walks" above the stage, we notice many outstanding basketball stars in the Fly Gallery. They are Willie Acker, forward; Harold Buffo, forward; Frank Genetti, center; George Gillilan, forward; Joe Guariz, forward; Reuben Haueter, guard; Joe Jelaca, guard and center; Hale Law, guard; and Enssi Raunio, guard.

These boys have been working together all season and showing good sportsmanship. As a result of their hard work and cooperation with both of the coaches, J. F. Jiacoletti, William Engstrom, they placed second as admission to the sixth annual District Basketball Tournament, which was held in Green River, Wyoming, March 4, 5 and 6.

The Dragons started their season with a victory. Superior vs. Rawlins, 25-23; Superior vs. Saratoga 36-30; Superior vs. Rawlins 22-21; Superior vs. Sara-

The Dragons entered the District Basketball Tournament at second rank in this division of the district, and played their first game with Kemmerer, losing it 28-22. Their second game at the tournament was played with the Green River Wolves, and the Dragons defeated them for the third time in the season by a score of 25-23. The Dragons third game was with the Rawlins Outlaws and they lost the game in the last few minutes 23-21. The Superior Dragons flipped with Afton for fifth and sixth places and lost, thus receiving sixth place in the District Tournament.

The basketball setting aroused a great deal of feeling and enthusiasm in the on-lookers.

Side Views

Quiet, quiet in the Wings, please! There has been a great deal of noise in the Wings during this basketball scene, for the Junior High players have had a very successful season.

It's no wonder the players in the Wings are so noisy, because they have good reason to be. A number of trips were taken to neighboring towns by the squad, conducted by Coach Quincy Tarter. Trips were made to Rock Springs, Green River and one to Reliance. Rock Springs and Green River came to Superior for two games. After each trip they were allowed a few minutes in Rock Springs in order to buy themselves a piece of pie (Mettam, especially, had to have his pie).

Our first team was quite outstanding. Joe Tomich, Nick Jelaca, Harry Cottrell, Steve Radakovich, and Marka Levar were the players of the first five. These boys displayed an aggressive spirit and developed quite rapidly.

These Junior Dragons defeated Rock Springs 31-30 for the first time in a number of years. In doing so they lost three games to the Junior Tigers. The small Dragons broke even with Green River, although in one game our second team played their first game. They lost that game 22-7, and were defeated 24-11 and 17-12 in the next two games. In the last game with Green River, the boys forgot to take along our football suits! We lost one of the toughest games of the season by a 15-14 score.

Against Reliance the Junior Dragons ran up an impressive score defeating them 42-18. In this game Jelaca scored 22 points, the highest total of any of the players in any one game. Jelaca and Tomich did most of the scoring for the first squad from their forward positions. But Cottrell at center and Radakovich and Levar gave valuable assistance to place Joe and Nick in scoring positions. Very few centers could out jump Cottrell.

The second team consisted of Sam Gillilan, Mike Radakovich, Andy Legerski, and Jimmy Hudson at forwards, Larie Patterson at center, and Nie Mettam and John Boam at guards. These boys also served as replacements for the first team. Alfred Menghini, Leno Menghini, Kladianas, Pecolar, Powers, Levar, Kansala, Mullins, Radich, Gacnik, Hysell, and Dieu made up the personnel of the third team.

The boys of the Junior High squad are expected to uphold the athletic honor of our school and add further to the honors won by the athletes of the past.

The Cue

"Curtain! curtain!" With this call the curtains parted at exactly 1937, revealing a group of Ham-Actors of various sizes and shapes. These actors had been called together for a final rehearsal before they could present their play of 1938.

In a scene from "Initiation," the amateurs appeared on the set dressed in motley costumes. Girls appeared in different sizes of boys clothing, and boys appeared in dainty feminine clothing.

Accompanying an order to "shoot," came a procession of feminine Ham-Actors, carrying various platters, cups, plates, and appetizing foods. What! Can't you guess? Why they are girls from the home economics department. They are re-enacting a scene taken from that great play, "The Football Banquet." Of course you remember it. Who could forget such a happy occasion when such boys as Wallace Richardson, Franklin Cross, and George Levkulich are in it.

Let's take a stroll down to the "Basketball" set and see who is there. Oh, oh, I can see Richard Wales, Wallace Richardson, Oliver Moretti, Franklin Cross, and George Levkulich. It beats me how those amateurs can get around. I can even see one of them over on the "Band" set. Zella Mae McIntosh seems to be learning new lines for future use.

Director Eleanor Linnan tells me that when she produced her play, "Pep Club," there were several girls reported to her for parts. Velma Korhonen, Athena Vallis, Mary Cieluszek, Helen Duyocoff, Mary Chesnovar, Harriet Haag, Zella Mae McIntosh, Josie Neideraufner, Mary Rizzi, and Dorothy Fabian received parts. If you can recall that play, you know what real acting ability those beginners showed.

There are some up and coming stars in the ranks of these young "Hams." It may take them until 1940 to climb up the ladder of fame, but there is no fear of their not getting there, unless some of them decide to quit and tackle a different job.

The star amateurs in our famous 1937 group of "Hams" are, by name, George Levkulich, the outstanding player, and following his lead are Franklin Cross, Wallace Richardson, and Richard DeMarco. The unusual fact about this great 1937 production is that all the stars are masculine.

Well, well, look what's here! Here come some beginners who have just finished a very good rehearsal on the "Honor Roll" set. This play certainly takes a lot of actors and actresses.

Now let's stroll around and visit some more of our good friends. We wish the "Hams" plenty of luck.

Doubles Ready!

Stand-ins! Stand-ins! Always there when you need them!

The Stand-ins have had a very busy year. They took the place of the "Understudies" in the initiation of the "Ham Actors" this year. They proved their worth in this job as they carried it out very successfully, in their blunt way as the "Ham Actors," boys dressed as girls and girls dressed as boys, went through the halls of the High School.

The heads of these Stand-ins are George Radakovich, president; Rose Butkovich, vice-president; and Sarah Murto, secretary and treasurer.

Next year, instead of doubling, these "Stand-ins" will be promoted a step higher, and they will become "Understudies," with the "Ham actors" stepping into their places.

In the Footlights and Fly Gallery of football and basketball these boys are found: Joe Guariz, Frank Williams, Junior Brown, Reuben Haueter, David Welsh, Joe Croney and George Radakovich.

Pep Club also claims many of the Stand-in girls for its members.

Understudies On Stage!

Call for Understudies! Call for Understudies!

Soon the Leads will be leaving good old S. H. S. to take higher and more important parts, and then the Understudies will be right there to step into their places.

They have already shown their worth and value, in that they were called upon to take the place of the Leads in giving and planning the Junior Promenade. The prom was given April 30 in the high school gymnasium with the theme of "Moonlight and Music." The gym was decorated accordingly, with large musical notes hanging from the ceiling and a large flood light in the atmosphere shone as the clear moon.

The actors participating in this intermission danced to the rhythm of Ike's orchestra. All of the revelers rejoiced at this gala affair.

The Understudies who had a chance to act in the most important roles this year are Enssi Raunio, president; Bill Cottrell, vice-president; and Josephine Legerski, secretary-treasurer. Basketball and football scenes exhibited the playing of Bill Cottrell, Enssi Raunio, George Gillilan, Joe Guariz, John Cieluszak, Paul Petrina, and Karl Koch.

Mr. William Engstrom, sponsor, directed the Understudies' performances.

When the Understudies take the parts of the Leads, it is certain that they will do a good job as they are very enthusiastic about stepping into the leading parts.

Ring-Up

The curtain slowly rises on the last act of Superior High School. Soft music can be faintly heard. Slowly the leads come out upon the stage to play the parts which they had understudied so long, taking each step with calm deliberance, careful to leave a good impression. The understudies gaze fondly at the scene being enacted upon the stage, as they have for many years previous, wondering at the sad faces of the "Leads." They are certain that as they are about to bring the play to a close in the years to follow, they will be happy and smiling.

Amid loud applause the three outstanding leads take their places upon the stage, first Willie Acker, then Frank Genetti, and last, but certainly not least, Guy Pasquini. These three have been guiding the performance of the leads during this, their last scene.

Appearing twice in this final scene is Mathoni Hansen, president and leader of the student body, and Frank Genetti, president of the Chemicolics Club. Another lead who took an outstanding role during the last scene was Margaret Fabian, cheer leader of the Pep Club, with the help of her two assistants Lorene Arkle and Flora Gillilan. Margaret Ruth Richardson and Ruth Moore assisted in the make-up department as editors of the paper and annual this year. Mr. John Peckenham directed the Leads this year.

Epilogue

The tears may come
As you turn this last leaf,
But let school day memories
Chase away your grief.
School is the time
For life and for laughter;
Enjoy it while you can,
For the sorrows come after.
Studies may be hard,

And days may be long,
But life will be harder
When school days are gone.
The Curtains now are closing
We bid you all adieu.
Our life's trip we are starting now;
We'll leave the rest to you.

New Household Refrigerator Advanced in Home Service

Designed to provide all five basic refrigeration services to the American housewife, the 1937 super-duty Frigidaire with the meter-miser makes its bow here. Engineered and manufactured by the household refrigeration division of General Motors, the new refrigerator has greater ice-ability, greater storage-ability, greater protect-ability, greater depend-ability and greater save-ability, according to its dealers. Judith Palmer is shown here demonstrating a few of the many features, chief of which is the sensationally new instant cube release which ends ice-cube struggle and makes cubes instantly available without effort on the part of the user.
